

Pole-detection and LiDAR-IMU

Extraction of features from LiDAR data is an important step of point cloud processing. The presentation covers an approach for detection of pole-like objects (e.g. tree trunks, street signs or power poles) and how they are exploited as features for a LiDAR-based inertial measurement unit (IMU).