

June 29th, 2021

Talk at Algebraic Topology group

Freie Universität Berlin

Gabriel Angelini-Knoll

Freie Universität Berlin

Advances on the red-shift conjectures

Abstract: The goal is to give a survey of recent progress on the red-shift conjectures (in the intersection of algebraic K-theory and chromatic homotopy theory) and the relation of the red-shift conjectures to classical problems in number theory and geometric topology.